Sir,

A pupil in the Intermediate College class of the Maharani's Girls' College, has passed and will continue to study for the B A Degree Examination As there is no provision in this College to teach for B A she has been induced to join the Maharaja's College to complete that course

Nagamma is an intelligent and well behaved student She is also a widow It is therefore desirable to encourage her to study for the Degree Examination

The first batch of pupils for the F A course (Intermediate) in the Maharani's College (there were five of them) had each been given a scholarship of Rs 50/- by Government as special scholarships to them Nagamma was in receipt of a scholarship of Rs 25/- from the Maharani's College while she was studying for the Intermediate Arts Examination Now for the B A course we recommend that Government may be pleased to grant a special scholarship of Rs 40/- to Nagamma She will have also to keep a carriage, either her own, or one hired, to enable her to attend the Maharaja's College

From past experience we have every hope that Nagamma will will do credit to the encouragement given to her
